My Goals for My Life

I think the most valuable thing in life is to live with goals. Everyone should have some goals or dreams; otherwise, what is the meaning of life? First, before I fulfill my splendid goals, I should enhance my practical skills and soft skills. Having practical skills may make myself more potential and strengthen my abilities. Moreover, soft skills are popular recently because they are essential. With the deficiency in patience, I need to learn more soft skills to improve my Achilles' heel. My priority goal is to become a successful designer like Yves Saint Laurent, who creates many enchanting and exquisite cosmetics. Second, I need to read many fashion magazines like Vogue or Elle, this can intensify my taste in fashion. In addition, reading some creative novels like "Da Vinci Code" may help you become innovative. Looking around the art museum is also a brilliant way to create my imagination. If I am fortunate enough to appreciate the masterpiece of Picasso, my life would be worth living.

Many people consider my dream to be a joke, but I am very clear that becoming a designer is what I really want. I hope I can go study abroad to broaden my horizons and learn many new experiences. I am eager to pursue my dream, and I am not scared of any rigorous challenges. Although I might feel ambivalent when I encounter dilemma, I am confident that I will pass the test. Finally, a life without goals is meaningless. We should live in a marvelous life with our faith. "I am on the right track and baby I was born this way", this is a lyrics from Lady Gaga's song, and it means everyone should be dauntless and brave when we are making effort to attain our goals. As the saying goes, "when there is a will, there is a way", believe in ourself and be fearless.
